

Developing High Performance School Culture

5 Best Practices

1pm BST, Thursday 24th September

Adey Greaves

Chief Operations Officer
Odyssey Collaborative Trust

James Ratcliffe

Assistant Head
(Extended Curriculum),
Bootham School

Kendall Peet

Head of School
International British School of Bucharest

Troy Westley

CEO
Operoo

Presenting Today

Tom Owen
Southern UK Director
Operoo

Lachlan James
Chief Marketing Officer
Operoo

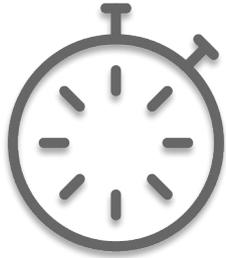

A Little About Us

School Operations and Productivity Platform

	 GO PAPERLESS	 SAVE TIME	 SAVE MONEY	 REDUCE RISK
PARENT & STUDENT FORMS	 Consent & Permission	 Student Medical & Emergency Data	 Paperless Student Onboarding	 Contracts & Handbooks
SMART PARENT COMMUNICATION	 Multilanguage Forms	 Personalised Alerts & Automated Reminders	 Group Messaging (SMS, Email & Push)	 Digital Payments & Shopping Cart
DIGITAL SCHOOL TRIP MANAGEMENT	 Trip Requests, Plans & Approvals	 Parent Trip Consent Form	 Mobile & Offline Access	 Up-to-Date Student Medical Records
ALL YOUR STAFF FORMS	 Any Type of Staff Form	 Paperless Staff Onboarding	 Approval Workflows	 Policy Management
ONE EFFICIENT, SECURE PLATFORM	 Admin System Integration	 Single Sign On	 Secure Mobile App	 GDPR Compliant

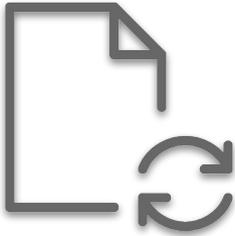

Reduce workload

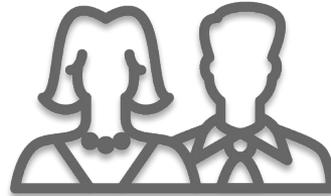

Safeguard your school
community

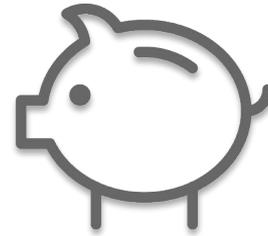

Better use data

Stop chasing information

Improve parent
engagement

Save money

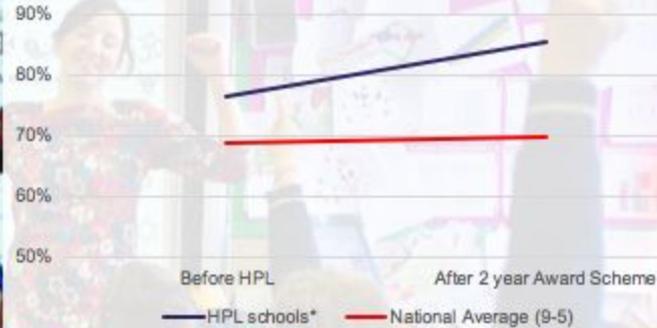

High Performance Learning

Consistently improved student achievements and behaviours

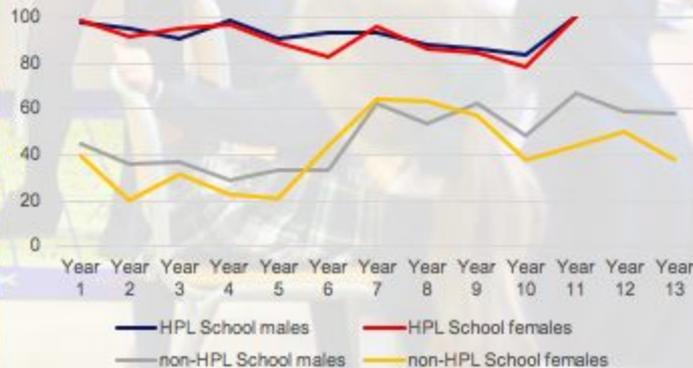

Enhanced staff and student professional capability and well-being

A culture of excellence that helps even the most outstanding school stand out

Average GCSE results in HPL schools before and after the Award Scheme

% students who believe they are capable of success

Today's Discussion

1

Culture and performance (teacher fulfilment and motivation)

Educators are happiest and at their best when they're doing what they love — teaching. So how can we create school environments, which enable them to spend more time doing exactly that?

2

Focus on outcomes, not processes

Empowering staff to focus on learning outcomes and results, rather than completing tasks or covering content, is paramount. How do we shift the focus?

3

Parent engagement

A key driver of student success is parent participation. What can you do to ensure parents are fully-engaged members of your school community?

4

Continuous feedback

Routinely gathering and acting on community inputs is critical for fostering a culture of continuous improvement. So what methods and systems do you need to adopt to implement regular feedback?

5

Access and equity for all learners

To create an environment where every student is viewed as a potential high-achiever, you need to adopt practices that ensure all students have equal opportunities to excel. What does that look like in practice?

Your Guest Speakers for Today

Kendall Peet

Head of School
International British School of Bucharest

Adey Greaves

Chief Operating Officer
Odyssey Collaborative Trust

James Ratcliffe

Assistant Head (Extended Curriculum)
Bootham School

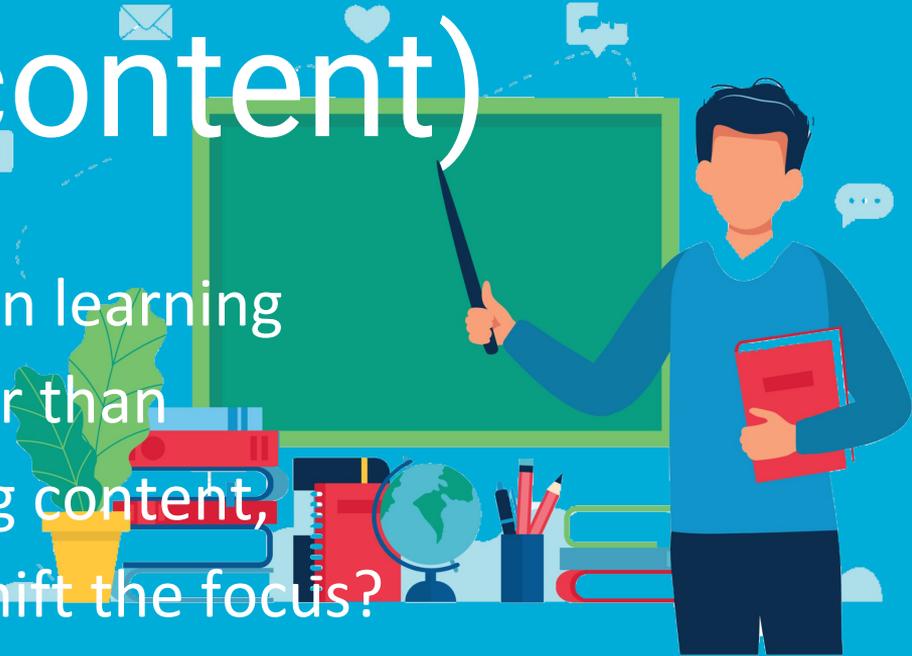

Culture and performance (fulfilment and motivation)

- Educators are happiest and at their best when they're doing what they love — teaching. How can we create school environments which enable teachers to spend more time doing exactly that?

Focus on learning outcomes (not teaching content)

→ Empowering staff to focus on learning outcomes and results, rather than completing tasks or covering content, is paramount. How do we shift the focus?

Parent engagement

→ A key driver of student success is parent participation. What can you do to ensure parents are fully-engaged members of your school community?

Continuous feedback

- Routinely gathering and acting on community inputs is critical for fostering a culture of continuous improvement. So what methods and systems do you need to adopt to implement regular feedback?

Q&A Session

Questions?

We're here to answer them!

www.operoo.com/contact-sales

High
Performance
Learning

THANKS FOR YOUR TIME

And for the incredible work you're doing

Next steps:

1

We'll send you the webinar recording

2

We'll follow-up with additional info about how we work with schools

3

And, if you'd like to know how Operoo can help you, simply ask:

www.operoo.com/contact-sales

